Dr. Bob Klostermann Begins Term as WVMA President

MADISON – Dr. Bob Klostermann assumed the presidency of the Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Association (WVMA) at its 96th Annual Convention on Friday, Oct. 21. He will serve as president for one year.

Dr. Klostermann completed his undergrad in chemistry at Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa before attending Iowa State University where he received his DVM in 1978. Dr. Klostermann practiced mainly small animal medicine at Waunakee Veterinary Service, a mixed animal practice, for about 10 years. Since the late 80s, he has been a small animal practitioner at the Middleton Veterinary Hospital in Middleton.

He served on the WVMA Executive Board as the District 5 representative, served on the MATC Veterinary Technician Advisory Board, Dean Selection Committee for the UW School of Veterinary Medicine and has been the chair of the Legislative Committee intermittently over the past 20 years. As the president of the Dane County Veterinary Medical Association in the early 80s, he participated in many meetings as the UW School of Veterinary Medicine was formed.

In his spare time, he enjoys golfing and boating. He also enjoys traveling with his wife, Karen, visiting his son Nathan and daughter-in-law, Hillary, in Portland, Oregon and visiting his daughter, Abbie, son-in-law, Brian, and granddaughter who live in Madison.

The mission of the Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Association is to advocate and promote veterinary medicine, while enriching animal and human health. Founded in 1915, The Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Association has nearly 2,300 members.
