Breakfast
6:30-7:45am
- Christian Veterinary Mission Fellowship Breakfast

Come hear about exciting opportunities within the Christian Veterinary Mission F
7:30am Continental Breakfast
Coffee Sponsored by Midwest Cremation Service of Wisconsin
Small Animal Tracks
8-9 am
- Feline Nutrition Part I: From Killers to Geri's

Deb Zoran, DVM, PhD, DACVIM (1.2 CE)
Sponsored by Marshfield Labs

An overview of important diet related issues in feeding cats, preventing obesity, and helping cats age wi

OR

- Practical Anesthesia & Analgesia of Exotic Pets

Kurt Sladky, DVM, DACZM (1.2 CE)

As in domestic species, the application of safe and effective anesthetic techniques is essential for non-d

OR

- Zoonotic Disease, Protecting Yourself from the Known and the Unknown

Carl Williams, DVM, MA, DACVPM (1.2 CE)
Sponsored by Merial, Ltd.

The session will discuss known zoonotic disease risks that place veterinarians at risk of illness. Specific
9:10-10:10am
- Feline Nutrition Part II: From Killers to Geri's

Deb Zoran, DVM, PhD, DACVIM (1.2 CE)
Sponsored by Marshfield Labs

An overview of important diet related issues in feeding cats, preventing obesity, and helping cats age wi

OR

- Avian Emergency Medicine: Basic Triage and Practical Approaches for Stabilizing a Critical Bird Patient

Kurt Sladky, DVM, DACZM (1.2 CE)

The objective of this presentation is to demonstrate easy-to-use approaches for application to avian eme

OR

- Update on MRSA and Pets

Jeff Bender, DVM, MS, DACVPM (1.2 CE)

Attendees will gain an understanding of methicillin-resistant Staphylococcus aureus issues in small anim

10:10-10:50am Break - Exhibit Hall
Coffee Sponsored by Midwest Cremation Service of Wisconsin

10:50-11:50am

- Kitten Diarrhea: You Can Make It Stop

Deb Zoran, DVM, PhD, DACVIM (1.2 CE)
Sponsored by Marshfield Labs

An overview of important infectious causes, importance of diet in therapy, and key aspects of understan

OR

- Update on Dental Disease in Rabbits and Rodents

Christoph Mans, DVM (1.2 CE)

This presentation will summarize the current knowledge on the pathophysiology, diagnosis and manage

OR

- Salmonella and Pet Food and Treats

Jeff Bender, DVM, MS, DACVPM (1.2 CE)

There are an increasing number of human salmonella outbreaks attributed to pet treats and pet foods. T

11:50-1pm Lunch - Exhibit Hall

1-2:30pm

- Keynote Address – Deal With It! How to Stay Calm Under Pressure

Mike Staver (1.8 CE non-scientific)

It's not about stress management. That won't work! It's not about changing your circumstances. That wil

You will learn:

- What drives your choices
- Why distress has the effect it has
- Why the things that happen to you, while challenging at times, are not the problem
- The steps to staying calm and productive
- The thought processes that cause some to thrive and others to collapse

Bring your entire clinic team! There is no cost for clinic teams of a registered veterinarian!

2:30-2:35pm Break

Co-sponsored by Novartis

2:45-3:45pm

- Feline Pancreatic Disease

Deb Zoran, DVM, PhD, DACVIM (1.2 CE)

Sponsored by Abaxis

Cats are increasingly recognized to have pancreatitis, but the causes, clinical presentation, and treatme

OR

- Medication Errors: Strategies to Reduce Them in Your Practice

Donald Plumb, PharmD (1.2 CE)

Medication errors occur in every veterinary practice, but this subject is rarely addressed in veterinary me

OR

- Rabies – The Classic Zoonotic Disease

James Kazmierczak, DVM, MS (1.2 CE)

Sponsored by Merial, Ltd.

Current rabies epidemiology and prevention measures will be described, with an emphasis on public hea

3:55-4:55pm

- Feline Colon Disease and Constipation

Deb Zoran, DVM, PhD, DACVIM (1.2 CE)

An overview of the importance of early recognition of risk factors and appropriate dietary and medical ma

OR

- Veterinary Drug Information: What

Donald Plumb, PharmD (1.2 CE)

With respect to the topic, this presentation reviews from whence we've come, where we must go, and wh

OR

- Zoonoses Potpourri

James Kazmierczak, DVM, MS (1.2 CE)
Sponsored by Merial, Ltd.

Various zoonotic diseases associated with companion animals will be covered, including Brucella canis

Large Animal Tracks
8-9am

- Zoonotic Diseases: Risk Recognition for the Practicing Veterinarian

David Van Metre, DVM, DACVIM (1.2 CE)

Farmers and ranchers, pet owners, veterinarians, and veterinary technicians often are the first persons t

9:10-10:10am

- Abdominal Emergencies in Cattle

David Van Metre, DVM, DACVIM (1.2 CE)

An abdominal emergency is defined as a potentially fatal disease process within the abdominal cavity th

10:10-10:50am Break - Exhibit Hall

Coffee Sponsored by Midwest Cremation Service of Wisconsin

10:50-11:50am

- Challenging Cases in Small Ruminant Medicine

David Van Metre, DVM, DACVIM (1.2 CE)

Weight loss in ewes, common and uncommon dermatologic conditions, severe flock and herd problems

11:50-1pm Lunch – Exhibit Hall

1-2:30pm

- Keynote Address – Deal With It! How to Stay Calm Under Pressure

Mike Staver (1.8 CE non-scientific)

It's not about stress management. That won't work! It's not about changing your circumstances. That wil

You will learn:

- What drives your choices
- Why distress has the effect it has
- Why the things that happen to you, while challenging at times, are not the problem
- The steps to staying calm and productive
- The thought processes that cause some to thrive and others to collapse

Bring your entire clinic team! There is no cost for clinic teams of a registered veterinarian!

2:30-2:45pm Break – Exhibit Hall

Co-sponsored by Novartis

2:45-3:45pm

- Lessons Learned in Small Ruminant Practice – Part I

David Van Metre, DVM, DACVIM (1.2 CE)

In these two sessions, practical tips for common field procedures in small ruminants will be presented. T

OR

- Impacts of Heat Stress on Dairy Cattle

Michael Wolf, DVM (1.2 CE)

Information will be presented focusing on the direct impacts of heat stress on transition health, milk prod

3:55-4:55

- Lessons Learned in Small Ruminant Practice – Part II

David Van Metre, DVM (1.2 CE)

In these two sessions, practical tips for common field procedures in small ruminants will be presented. T

OR

- Hybrid Tunnel Ventilation Performance in a Commercial Dairy Setting

Michael Wolf, DVM (1.2 CE)

In this session, the results of a hybrid tunnel ventilation system as an alternate power ventilation and co